

BFA Director at Large Award

by Nancy Griffin, BFA Director at Large

Each year the Directors of the Balloon Federation of America has the opportunity to select a person or persons that the Director would like to honor. Now when you are one of three Directors at Large, you have lots of good ballooning folks to choose from. It is a tough decision for sure. I usually look for a person that works behind the scenes.

This year I looked towards the National Balloon Museum. I have known about this person for a long time. Years of dedication to the Museum was a good start.

At the Annual G e n e r a 1 Meeting in Albuquerque I r e a d th e following words a b o u t th is person. The best is that we (a group of fellow Museum folks) have kept this a secret since then.

The person who I'm giving my award to this year has been with the National Balloon Museum since about 1979. This person is the kind of volunteer everyone should have in the organization. She does love ballooning. Yep, now you know it is a lady - Mary Conklin.

There were a number of people who helped me with the following history of Mary's time at the Museum.

Written by Mark Weeks:

- She leads tours of the Museum
- She is an official scorer for the National Balloon Classic in Indianola, IA each year.
- She assists the Museum treasurer in many ways.
- She spent countless hours in getting donor lists for the main building of the Museum and the addition.
- She keeps the cash register drawer in order.

Letter from President Meika

Hello to all my friends!

As 2008 draws to a close, members of our ballooning community have been congregating at the Balloonport to reminisce about the past year and to voice their hope for the future. As your President, I am a good listener and occasional counselor.

I'm sure all years have high points and low points, but the consensus appears to be that the ups and downs have seldom been so pronounced and vivid. Many are blaming global warming for our disastrous floods and traumatic tornados. At the least, there have been lots of times and places where flying a balloon would have been ill advised.

On the national scene, the woes of Wall Street have contributed to economic collapse. Banks and auto manufacturers are vying for their piece of a 700 billion dollar bail out. BOI members have expressed resentment at the need to use our tax dollars to salvage institutions whose greed, management, and irresponsibility have led to a worldwide recession. It is particularly distressing when BOI has always modeled responsible planning and financial stewardship.

World wide we are still subjected to the presence of Al–Qaida and their persistent terror attacks. Conflict continues in Iraq. Israel and the Palestinians in the Gaza Strip are lobbing bombs and mortars at each other. Pakistan and India, two nuclear armed neighbors, are massing at their border. Somali pirates have attacked over 40 ships in the Gulf of Aden.

Despite these gloomy scenarios, balloonists seem to be able to always find some cause for optimism. For every period of high fuel prices we have a period of low fuel prices. The election of a Democratic President (in the interest of honest journalism, however, this occasion is on the high list for some and the low list for others), the Olympics with Michael Phelps being acclaimed the greatest Olympian ever, and Iowa's own Shawn Johnson bringing home the gold. Iowa's football team made it to the Outback Bowl. However, that optimism is somewhat tempered by Iowa State athletics.

Despite some problems, our ballooning community appears to remain positive. Many of the conversations in the Balloonport this time of year revolve around resolutions for the future. There is no way I can list them all, but representative resolutions are:

- Treat my chase crew more humanely
- Build a 21st century rail system
- Build the Balloons Over Iowa Retirement Home
- Exercise and lose weight
- Plant more trees and shrubbery
- Pay my propane bill promptly
- Increase production of electricity using renewable sources of solar and wind energy
- Use manure more effectively

And my favorite, during 2009, make every flight, every party, and every new friend a vivid experience. Savor the great things we have, and always remember to:

Fly Safely, Meika

Letter from Vice-President Sandy

Greetings from the Mexico Puppy/Dog Resort! The weather here in Mexico is awesome!

I just realized it's time for another article for the Balloons Over Iowa newsletter. Since I'm out of town I'm having to paw this article out on Dad's smart phone.

I think I need to have Dad get me one of these or at least have one on hand to make me look important as I take my walk around Radcliff!

I decided it was time to take a vacation somewhere warm. I've heard reports that folks in Iowa had 60 degrees one day, an ice storm the next, and flooding after that.

I'm not sure I'm ready to come back to all that. The Puppy/Dog Resort in Mexico is a great place to vacation!

Before I sign off, I hope everyone had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! I'm not sure where 2008 went. I just hope 2009 brings us better weather, a better economy, and some great ballooning!

Congratulations to Jim and Connie Thompson who just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary! Best wishes to you both.

Time for me to sign off. I'm heading out for more sightseeing and some badly needed time in the sun.

As always, keep looking up. Sandy Drake

- She spends countless hours keeping inventory counts for the Museum gift shop.
- She currently is the Secretary for the Museum Board and Endowment Board (we think she may have had this position since she started with the Museum)
- The best part is Mary Conklin is a wonderful person. Along with her husband Conk, their dedication to Museum is very much appreciated by all.

Written by Maxine Weinmen:

The Museum moved into the house on N. E St. in the fall of 1979. The Museum had the building and that enabled IBI and BFA to have offices there. The Mary was always interested, willing, and volunteering.

Even though not employed by the Museum--in 1981 when Jim and I were told by BFA to take an exhibit to the World's in Battle Creek- Conklins took (in their pickup) the panels we didn't have room to take in Laverty's motor home. We actually hadn't had much contact with them before that--and not much even then! But-they were a big help!

The relationship went on from there--working at the Museum I got to interact with Mary a lot as she was working in the IBI office and for the Museum membership drive, etc. When we moved from "the house" to North C St. Mary and Conk helped a lot. Mary and I ripped cupboards off the wall in the kitchen of the house and they were installed in the "copy" room at the present Museum building when we moved there!

We moved into the present building in 1988 and the Museum needed someone there at least part time to answer phone, etc. I am not sure when she started that position--and don't remember the hours--not full time by any means--but--she has been employed or volunteered since that time!

Mary has always been very committed to Indianola balloons and to the Museum!

Written by Gary Ruble:

Mary and "Conk", Gerald, have been fixtures at the Museum for a long time, probably in some way from the start of the formal Museum. Mary spends so much of her time during off hours that usually goes unnoticed.

After the Classic, she inventoried all of the items that we brought back from the balloon field. A necessary thing, but one that didn't get a lot of attention. Much of what she does is like that.

Jim and Connie Thompson:

We are sorry we will missed the presentation. Mary is such a good friend and so dedicated to ballooning.

Balloons Over Iowa Membership Meeting

BOI Balloonport, Carlisle, IA November 16, 2008

Present: Michelle Craig, Brad Craig, Colton Craig, Ashley Williams, Kirk Bloom, Mary & Gerald Conklin, Rob Bartholomew, Jerry Bolton, Ken & Shanda Bolton, Bill Griffin, Max & Carol Harris

Meeting called to order by Chair Kirk Bloom at 6:35:25.

Secretary's report: Minutes from meeting presented. Max moved to approve secretary's report, Rob 2nd. Motion approved.

Treasurer's report: Treasurer not present

Old Business:

- \star He's not here
- ★ Mary reported on the Museum calendars. They have printed 100 calendars, to be sold for $15. They already have orders for over 50. Call the museum if you would like to order one.
- ★ Rob reported on the 4 wheeler race held on his farm. It was very cold that weekend, so there were less spectators than expected. There were 30 states represented in the competition.
- ★ The Halloween party was a success. There was a good turnout, lots of kids, lots of entries in the chili cook-off, lots in costume.
- ★ The club thanks Jim Thompson for nominating the club for the Directors award that was presented at the Halloween party. Discussion on where to display the award. Issue tabled for now.
- ★ Ken Bolton reported on a Night glow they helped with for the Taste of Ankeny. John Jensen, Tim Cloyd & Todd Patterson all glowed. Discussion on possible balloon event in Ankeny.

New Business:

★ Mary brought information on the Museum Fashion Flare. It will be relocated to the Methodist church due to parking issues at the museum. ★ Discussion on UTM maps. Will await report from Cory or Scott.

Treasurer is now present. Members asked if BOI will need a bailout from the government. We can see if Mr. Harkin or Mr. Grassley will intervene on our behalf. Members felt we should ask for $1billion or 1 billion cases of beer. It must be American beer - no imports. This will help the economy by helping the beer brewers.

- ★ Kirk reported on attending Galena Halloween fest. They did a night glow one night & the parade the next night. His crew was dressed as the Addams family & Scott's crew was the Scooby-Doo gang.
- ★ Discussion on helping with or paying for improvements to the pilot compound at the Classic field. Discussion, discussion, discussion.
- ★ Carol passed out Ground School registration forms. She sent information to IBA, Missouri Balloon Club, Nebraska Balloon Club, Sioux Falls Balloon club, Minnesota Balloon club, Wisconsin Balloon Group, Illinois Balloon Club & Great Plains (Kansas) Balloon Club to be placed in their newsletters or passed on to interested members.

Bill moved to adjourn, Brad 2nd. Motion passed. Meeting adjourned 7:19:18.

Respectfully submitted Carol Harris, secretary for life.

NTSB Reports

NTSB Identification: CHI07CA189.

Monday, July 02, 2007 in Battle Creek, MI Aircraft: Cameron Balloons Z-77, registration: N4021M Injuries: 1 Minor, 1 Uninjured.

The balloon caught fire after landing during the Battle Creek Field of Flight Hot Air Balloon Festival. The pilot stated that after approximately one hour in the air, the balloon landed safely in a yard. When the pilot looked up inside the top of the balloon envelope, the "parachute top did not reseat." He attempted to reseat the top by using a "blast of heat" from the burners but it did not work. The pilot "knew the balloon would quickly sink down on top of the basket" so he turned the burners to their horizontal position and prepared to push the envelope fabric away. When the balloon envelope began to descend towards the ground the pilot reported that "we suddenly had a fire in the basket." Both the pilot and passenger were able to exit the basket. The pilot "determined the fire was coming from the burners" so he returned to the basket and turned off the fuel tanks. The fire was subsequently extinguished by the passenger and bystanders. An examination of the balloon after the accident revealed the fuel valve for the whisper burners was in the "on" position.

The National Transportation Safety Board determines the probable cause(s) of this accident as follows: The whisper burner's fuel valve opening for undetermined reasons, which resulted in a fire after landing. A factor in the accident was the balloon envelope's parachute top not reseating.

NTSB Identification: CHI07CA300.

Sunday, September 16, 2007 in Creston, IA Aircraft: Cameron Balloons O-77, registration: N9539G Injuries: 1 Serious, 1 Uninjured.

During a high-wind landing the balloon landed hard, the pilot was ejected from the basket, and the passenger pulled the envelope deflation line. The balloon came to rest against a barbed-wire fence. The passenger was seriously injured with a broken arm and the balloon's envelope was substantially damaged with several fabric tears and punctures. The accident flight was part of an organized balloon launch in conjunction with a balloon festival. At 0630, the pilot attended a prelaunch pilot meeting that included a weather briefing. At the time of that briefing the surface wind velocity was 4 knots. The surface wind velocity was forecasted to increase to approximately 10 knots by 1000 local time. Upon departure the encountered wind was greater than forecasted. As soon as it was practicable, the pilot performed a high-wind landing to an open hayfield at which time the hard landing was encountered. At 0819, a nearby weather station reported the surface wind was from the south-southeast at 4 knots, gusting to 20 knots. During the subsequent accident investigation, a wind model estimated the wind direction and velocity at approximately 700 feet agl to be from the south at 18 knots.

The National Transportation Safety Board determines the probable cause(s) of this accident as follows: The pilot's inadvertent flight into adverse (high wind) weather conditions, which resulted in a hard landing. Contributing to the accident was the high wind encountered during the balloon flight and the barbed-wire fence.

NTSB Identification: DFW07CA201.

Sunday, September 16, 2007 in Bossier City, LA Aircraft: Ultra Magic M-56C, registration: N105WB Injuries: 2 Serious.

The hot air balloon landed hard during an organized balloon festival. The 472-hour commercial pilot reported that while attempting to land the hot air balloon within the "target area," he and the passenger were ejected from the basket during a hard landing. The balloon bounced and became airborne without any of the occupants. The pilot attempted to control the balloon by holding onto the balloon's tether rope. The unoccupied balloon ascended with the pilot holding onto the rope. The pilot was seriously injured when he was no longer able to hold onto the rope and fell to the ground. In the recommendation section of the Pilot/Operator Aircraft Accident Report (NTSB Form 6120.1), the pilot stated that the accident could have been prevented if he would have used a slower rate of descent. The winds at the time of the mishap were reported from 110 degrees at 4 knots.

The National Transportation Safety Board determines the probable cause(s) of this accident as follows: The pilot's failure to arrest an excessive descent rate prior to ground contact, which resulted in a hard landing.

NTSB Identification: DEN07CA163.

Thursday, September 20, 2007 in Hartsel, CO Probable Cause Approval Date: 11/29/2007 Aircraft: Aerostar S81A, registration: 0N5294D Injuries: 1 Serious, 4 Uninjured.

According to the pilot, the departure and en route portion of the flight were normal. While setting up for the landing, the pilot noted the wind was approximately 10 to 14 knots and "nothing was unusual." During the touchdown, "the initial impact was hard, followed by a small hop, and then a second impact." One passenger sustained serious injuries.

The National Transportation Safety Board determines the probable cause(s) of this accident as follows: the pilot's inability to maintain the proper descent rate. A factor contributing to the accident was the unfavorable wind conditions.

A Member of the Thompson's Ballooning Family Will be Missed

The Thompsons lost a member of their family the day before Thanksgiving. Not a member of our direct family but a beloved member of our ballooning family. On September 2, 1984, I took a sponsor on a ride at the Great Pershing Balloon Derby. That sponsor was Dorothy Grafton. Her family had purchased the sponsorship so that she could experience a balloon ride. On that flight I had a 2 foot drop on an intersection target and ended taking first place overall at the event. Dorothy so enjoyed the flight that she and the family continued to be our sponsor for the next 24 years.

Those of you that have been at the Brookfield Labor Day balloon event will remember Dorothy as the one that always had a breakfast spread in the back of her pickup truck at the propane line. She invited everyone to enjoy her homemade cinnamon or pecan rolls and anything else that she had to eat. Dozens of old lawn chairs were available so everyone could sit and enjoy the food. She would always show up for the evening flight with fixings for sandwiches and other food. In addition she invited us and our crew out to the farm for dinner on Sunday. These traditions are something that we will always remember. The Balloon Derby was one of the things that Dorothy enjoyed. Her entire family always came home for Labor Day. It was a special time for her.

Over the years we watched Dorothy and Lloyd's family grow with the addition of grandchildren and great grandchildren. We attended the wedding of one of their grand daughters, Caroline at a small country church south of Laclede. We laughed when Dorothy was getting things organized for an outdoor reception. The wind was blowing like mad and Dorothy used clothes pins to hold her dress down. She told us that the dress was special for weddings and funerals. Sure enough she was buried in the same dress.

Several years ago, Dorothy had back surgery. The surgery did not go well and Dorothy was in much pain most of the time. You would never know that by looking at her. This past year she was diagnosed with leukemia. She refused chemotherapy because she could not endure the trip to Columbia, Missouri twice a week. Connie and I made the choice this year to attend the Brookfield event rather than go to Nationals in Anderson, SC. The choice was not hard to make and it turned out to be the right choice for several reasons. Even though it was difficult for her, Dorothy was at each flight and had us out to the farm for Sunday dinner just like always. We were glad that we were able to spend Dorothy's last Balloon Derby with her and her family.

I had the privilege of talking with Dorothy for about a half hour late in October. Connie had sent her flowers for her 80th birthday on October 18th and she called to thank us for remembering her. I knew she was in pain but she never let on or complained.

The Graftons, especially Dorothy, made us feel like we were members of her family. We welcomed that and can tell you that she will be missed by her family, including the Thompsons. The Great Pershing Balloon Derby will not be the same, although we will return. Lloyd told us at the funeral that the family will continue to be our sponsor. That is what families are all about.
